"We enjoyed the trip very much. All the excursions were very well organized. We were also always in contact with the organizer, we received information about the meeting points and departure times via Whats up and were able to ask questions, which were answered quickly."

Professional tour operator, much cheaper and providing better value for your money than those international big box tour companies like Trafalgar, Insight, Globus, etc., who try to make money from you every chance they can with those overpriced optional excursions."

Anumeya Chandra, India

"This tour is carefully crafted to make sure you don't miss out anything. By the end of this tour I was absolutely smitten with Serbia's beauty and its culture. Radenko was an amazing and knowledgeable guide and a great company too. Because of him, I now have a thorough understanding of Serbia's history and how it has shaped the country. Victor Tours are very helpful and they did a great job with everything. I was very satisfied with all the arrangements."

Paul Driskill, USA

"I really enjoyed my tour of Serbia! The accommodations were nice, and conveniently located. The tour guides were friendly, and informative, and I learned a lot from their insights. There was also plenty of free time to explore independently. I would definitely recommend the "Bohemian Night" add on, as it really accented the experience. Thank you so much for such a wonderful vacation!!"

Tumas Cassar, Malta

"If you are in the processing of selecting a tour agency, then look no further. Seriously, just book Victor Tours. My family and I had a fabulous week touring Serbia with them. The right dosage of touring, talking, eating, traveling, and discovering hidden gems. They were patient, kind and so accommodating to our high maintenance needs. By the way, Serbia is a secret...explore it before everyone does."

"You cannot understand the Balkans without understanding Serbia, its history, and its people."
